We had a special message from the First Presidency by Pres. Tanner. It was great to hear from him. Then we had A. Theodore Tuttle and Marion G. Romney. Nowhere else but General Conference would we get to hear more General Authorities. It's been a real privilege.

I haven't had a chance to write any letters. I received one from Lynette yesterday. I have started a few thank-you notes.

Later - I'm at the LTM now. I love it and feel right at home! My companion is Schwester Ricks, my bus companion from pageant (Dianne)! We went up to the Bookstore to buy necessary supplies. Our district consists of eight elders and me. Our acting district leader is Elder Campbell. We've got some great guys in our district. Thursday, March 30, 1972.

We walked back down to the Amanda Knight Hall for dinner. We eat our meals there with several other zones -
