that I would be blessed for abiding by the rule. This is one circumstance when I don't know why the rule exists but must abide by it in obedience if I want to prepare myself to serve the Lord as He desires. I'm really glad I mentioned it to Bruder Wolferts, for now I'm doubly committed. With the Lord and him on my side, I can't fail.

We had Sunday School at 9:15. The opening exercises were in German, but the class taught by Brother Buchanan was in English. It was a beautiful lesson on charity and the Lord's love for us. After a few minutes of break, we moved right into Fast and Testimony Meeting. It was all in German, but I could understand many of the testimonies that were born[e]. I still can't understand much of the songs. My dear companion bore a beautiful testimony auf Deutsch. We weren't able to have a very long meeting because they needed to get the room ready for dinner. It's been a special to be able to fast this day. My companion is still fasting - I ate dinner with others. We new missionaries had a meeting with Brother Wolferts. He challenged us to have a change in heart so we could do the work right.

We left late, I mean we arrived late, for a mission sisters' meeting at Allen Hall. I was really tired and had a hard time staying awake. Then we went late to our culture class. Before I went in, Brother Wolperts wanted me to see him. I had a beautiful time talking with him. I told him how excited I was about being here and learning German. I told him I was really glad to be Sis. Rick[s]'s companion, especially because she is so conscientious about speaking

German always. As I mentioned earlier, I also told him about my temptation with the tape recorder. After
